THE POSITION:

The County of Santa Cruz is seeking an engaged professional to plan, organize, direct and monitor the Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Program which includes Title VII of the Civil Right Act (1964) and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Compliance Program for the County. The incumbent is responsible for developing, implementing and monitoring the County's EEO Plan approved by the Board of Supervisors. The incumbent also provides staff support to the County EEO Commission.

The list established will be used to fill the current vacancy and it may also be used to fill other vacancies during the life of the eligible list.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate that they have the ability to:

- Demonstrate strong self-motivation
- Take initiative to identify tasks and drive them to completion
- Deliver work with precision and ensure accuracy in all tasks
- Thrives on investigating complex topics, particularly related to employment laws and workplace policies
- Gather, evaluate, and synthesize information effectively to support decision-making
- Remain calm, composed, and adept at defusing tense situations
- Write clearly, concisely, and persuasively, tailoring messages to diverse audiences
- Actively participate as a team player, supporting colleagues and encouraging collaboration

QUALIFICATIONS:

Any combination of training and experience which would provide the required knowledge and abilities is qualifying. A typical way to obtain the knowledge and abilities would be:

Four years of increasingly responsible professional human resources experience in one or more areas such as equal employment opportunity, employment regulation compliance and workplace investigations. A four-year degree from an accredited university in the area of public administration, business administration, human resources management, psychology or law may be substituted for one year of experience.

THE COMMUNITY:

Stunning Santa Cruz County has approximately 270,000 residents and is situated in the northern area of Monterey Bay, 70 miles south of San Francisco and 35 miles southwest of the Silicon Valley. The County's natural beauty is apparent in its pristine beaches, lush redwood forests, and rich farmland. The County enjoys an ideal Mediterranean climate with low humidity and approximately 300 days of sunshine a year. The area's unique shops and restaurants, coupled with a multitude of cultural and recreational activities, including theatre, music, art as well as golfing, surfing, hiking, and biking, offer a wealth of leisure activities. There are numerous local higher education institutions including Cabrillo College and the University of California, Santa Cruz, with two additional State Universities less than an hour away. These elements make Santa Cruz County a great place to live, work, and play!

We value diverse perspectives and encourage applications from women, people of color, individuals with disabilities, and candidates from all backgrounds. If you have a disability that requires test accommodation, please call (831) 454-2600.

To comply with the 1986 Immigration Reform and Control Act, Santa Cruz County verifies that all new employees are either U.S. citizens or persons authorized to work in the U.S.

Some positions may require Fingerprinting and/or Background Investigation.

THE EXAMINATION:

Your application and supplemental questionnaire will be reviewed to determine if you have met the education, experience, training and/or licensing requirements as stated on the job announcement. If you meet these criteria and are one of the best qualified, you may be required to compete in any combination of written, oral and/or performance examinations or a competitive evaluation of training and experience as described on your application and supplemental questionnaire. You must pass all components of the examination to be placed on the eligible list. The examination may be eliminated if there are ten or fewer qualified applicants. If the eligible list is established without the administration of the announced examination, the life of the eligible list will be six months and your overall score will be based upon an evaluation of your application and supplemental questionnaire. If during those six months it is necessary to administer another examination for this job class, you will be invited to take the examination to remain on the eligible list.

HOW TO APPLY:

Apply online at www.santacruzcountyjobs.com or mail/bring an application and supplemental questionnaire to: Santa Cruz County Personnel Department, 701 Ocean Street, Room 510, Santa Cruz, CA 95060.
